Seeing a Play!

Please have a discussion about good theatre etiquette before the production:

What fun! You get to see a play!
But what is a play?

~A play is a story told by actors

Our play is a musical, what does that mean?

~There is singing, dancing, and acting to enhance the story!

What is the difference between a movie and a play?

~The actors are right in the room with you! They can see you, hear you, and feel you!

What are some things we can do to be a marvelous audience?

- ~Sit still
- ~Use the bathroom before the performance
- ~Turn off cell phones
- ~Clap and enjoy the actors' hard work!

What is MISS NELSON IS MISSING about?

The kids in Room 207 were misbehaving again. Spitballs stuck to the ceiling. Paper planes whizzing through the air. They were the worst-behaved class in the whole school.

So begins this quirky classic, first published in 1977 and still relevant today as a lighthearted reminder to show our appreciation to those we value. The students don't proffer a shred of respect for their good-natured teacher Miss Nelson, but when the witchy substitute Miss Viola Swamp appears on the scene, they start to regret their own wicked ways.

Miss Nelson is Missing! is presented through special arrangement with The Susan Gurman Agency, LLC

Meet the Playwright and Author

Joan Cushing, Playwright

MS. CUSHING is a humorist, playwright, composer, lyricist and political satirist. She performs in Mrs. Foggybottom & Friends, which is a newsical review featuring her wit and humor. She's a former elementary school teacher. Joan is the author of numerous musicals for children that have had over 350 productions nation wide. Some of her works include Miss Nelson is Missing, Miss Nelson Has a Field Day, Junie B. Jones & a Little Monkey Business and Diary of a Worm, Spider and Fly.

Harry Allard, AUTHOR

HARRY ALLARD was born in Evanston, Illinois, on January 27, 1928. Although he never planned to write children's books, Harry teamed up with his friend James Marshall in the early 1970s and embarked on a remarkable and exciting partnership which lasted until Marshall's death in the early 1990s. They collaborated on as many as twelve titles, among them the misadventures of the Stupid family and the Miss Nelson books. Harry Allard currently lives in Oaxaca, Mexico.

IDEAS FOR CLASS

WANTED POSTER

Make a wanted poster for a student that is a good citizen. Be sure to include a picture. Under the picture, list traits the good citizen should have.

MISSING POSTER

Make a missing poster for Miss Nelson. Be sure to include a picture. Under her picture describe what she looks like and where she was last seen.

NEW BOOK COVER

Fold a sheet of paper in half so it looks like a book cover. On the front write the title and author. Under that draw and color a picture of a scene from the book. On the inside, summarize the book.

PICTURE WALK

Divide your paper into four sections. Write first, next, then, last in each section. Draw and color a picture of what happened first, next, then and last in the story.

NEW ENDING

Create a new ending for the story. You may also choose to draw and color a picture of the new ending.

And don't miss next year's Elementary Outreach Program:

It's Junie B.'s first day of first grade and a lot of things have changed for her: Junie's friend Lucille doesn't want to be her best pal anymore, and on the bus, Junie B. makes friends with Herb, the new kid at school. Also, Junie has trouble reading the blackboard and her teacher Mr. Scary thinks she may need glasses. Throw in a friendly cafeteria lady, a kickball tournament and a "Top-Secret Personal Beeswax Journal", and first grade has never been more exciting.
