Director's Note:

I LOVE TBC!

This year's theme is "It's Personal!". I wanted the teens to know and love their selves and then take that super power and create textured characters. They have all done beautiful work these past three weeks. I am so proud of each of them. And I am so grateful for the blessing to witness their amazing growth in such a short time.

Enjoy the ride... it's a good one!

~Toni Butler
